UPDATE on the Heck Family Picnic 2022.

Great News!!!!

After two years without a Heck Family Picnic, we are happy to announce that the picnic is now scheduled for Sunday, 10 JULY 2022 at the Leisure Center in Racine, Wisconsin. Please mark your calendar accordingly. Sherry Heck made the reservations and she will be working on the details for the picnic. She will communicate the plans to our family members and we will post updates on the Heck family website.

Because of Covid-19 the Heck Family Picnic had to be canceled for 2020 and 2021. The family golf outings were also canceled in 2020 and 2021. The previous time that the Heck picnic was canceled was during the Polio epidemic in 1952.

We want all of our family members to stay safe and healthy during this pandemic and we will communicate any special requirements to you.

We need one of our family members to step forward and volunteer to set up the pre-picnic Heck Family Golf Outing. The golf outing normally starts out with a breakfast followed by a round of golf at an area course. The golf outing is held on the same day as the Heck Picnic. Please let Sherry Heck know that you are volunteering. Also please let Bob Heck know so he can update the golfers on our website.

Thank you and please help spread the word.

This is an early photo of the Kansasville train depot located in Western Racine County, Wisconsin. Kansasville was the home of Peter McNulty and Henry Heck. Henry owned a property just to the north of the train depot. He had hoped to open a grocery store there but decided to move to Burlington instead. Peter McNulty owned and operated a saloon right next to and south of the train depot. I could imagine that Peter McNulty was driving the horse drawn wagon to transport passengers to his saloon for a quick drink or two.

Haus 16, Alendorf, Germany (House Number 16 at Alendorf, Germany) More information & Photos.

Below left you will find information from the “Wir Alendorfer” book on house number 16 in Alendorf.

The two photos show the house with people who owned or lived in it after the Schaefer family immigrated in 1852, to Wisconsin and Minnesota. Scarletta Schaefer reads this news letter.

On the right side of the book I inserted a mark <<< next to Anna Barbara Schaefer born 30 August 1801 who married Johann Heck in 1833. These were my great-great grandparents and are the ancestors of the Heck families from Wisconsin and Minnesota. Johann and Anna Barbara immigrated to Wisconsin from Alendorf in 1853 with their children. Anna Barbara was born in house number 16.

Right below the mark is Anna Barbara’s brother, Johann Schaefer born 15 May 1792 and Maria Catharina Lux born 28 January 1802. They were married on 23 January 1825. They immigrated to Wisconsin in 1852 with six of their children: Johann Peter, Angela, Anna Luzia, Susanna, Mathias, and Anna Barbara Schaefer.

Johann Schaefer and Maria Catharina Lux were the great-great-great-grandparents of Scarletta Schaefer as follows: Scarletta, Scott Elliott, Leo Thomas, Herbert Herman, Leo Nicholas, Johann Peter Schaefer, and Johann Schaefer and Maria Catharina Lux. Nearly all of the Schaefer’s from Brown and Nicollet Counties, Minnesota are descendants of Johann Schaefer and Maria Catharina Lux.

New York Passenger Lists, 1851-1891

The ship's manifest listed the family as Johann Schaefer 56, Maria 46, Peter 25, Angela 23, Lucia 21, Susanna 11, Mathias 7 and Barbara 5.

It's a Small Yet Friendly World

In the last issue of Our Family News Letter I included a photo of a house at 593 Poradi Street in the Village of Uhersky Brod, Moravia, Czechia which was better known as Czechoslovakia. Today that country is known as The Czech Republic. I stated that that is where my mother and my uncle Mike (Bohumil) were born in 1912 and 1910 respectively. While doing some more research in January 2022, I discovered that they were actually born in house 55 on Poz Nemcove Street in Uhersky Brod. My grandparent's first two children were born at 593 Poradi Street. Their second two children, including my mother Mary Ann Mikelova, and Bohumil Mikel, were born in house 55 on Poz Nemcove Street.

In an email message to my cousin Daniel Mikel, I stated:

“Following is a new photo of House 55 in Uhersky Brod. Your Dad and my Mother were born in that house in 1910 and 1912. I had sent you Bohumil's birth record and that is where I found the new house number. I went on Google Map street view and that street was one of the streets that were not photographed. I had hoped to get a photo of house 55 from Google Map.

I went on Facebook and looked to see if there was a Facebook Group page for Uhersky Brod. I found one that specialized in photos of the area. I asked if someone could take pictures of house 55 and about 45 minutes later I had a photo of house 55. The person who sent it said that the quality of the photo was not very good and that his wife would take better pictures later that day. Later that same day I had four new photos from Uhersky Brod.

I sent a Thank You note to them and explained that Gloria and I were in Uhersky Brod in 2017 for our 50th wedding anniversary and we were able to be with my distant cousins, Martin and Lubor Soucek. Much to my surprise the lady who took the pictures said that she was good friends with Martin and that their kids played on the same soccer team.”

Two photos of House number 55 on Boz Nemcove Street in Uhersky Brod, Czechia.

It really is a small and friendly world out there.
